Some services, however, are available. A called telephone connection can be made between two or more points which may be located in different cities. This is known as a joint telephone service. There is also a telephone exchange connection between telephone companies which gives but little coverage, little or nothing, and it is not in question for service at least here in Canada.

September 1957, during a three week period, the Special Agent in Charge, FBI, Sioux City, Iowa, and his wife, Mrs. William C. Ladd, participated in various community activities and social events in Sioux City, Iowa, on account of the 1957 All-American Girl Scout Jamboree. At that time, the Agent in Charge was invited to talk over mutual interest matters of concern to the Agent and the girls, and to answer their questions concerning the Agent's work as a Special Agent in Charge.
